Participation

Open to all the F.C.I. members and foreign amateur racing cyclists with their Federation regular 2019 membership card, from 19 to 70 years old.

No UDACE membership card but only the replacement ACSI-UDACE membership card is allowed.

The race, is also open to members of the Sports Organizations Bodies, that have signed the agreement with the FCI for the year 2019 (ACSI, CSI, CSAIN and UISP) and members of the Sports Organizations Bodies, that must present the Bike Card together with the card (For the list of the SOB, please have a look here <https://bit.ly/2PM3BRN>).

N.B. all card holders for other organizations must submit the competitive medical certificate for cycling (no other sports!), and buy the Daily Card.

For those who do not have a membership card, a € 10,00 F.C.I. Daily Card, will be issued. It covers the insurance for 'third-party liability' during the Event. For this card to be issued the PARTICIPANTS NEED TO SUBMIT THE SPORT-MEDICAL CERTIFICATE(CYCLING CERTIFICATE) drawn up according to the model available online, and the Ethical Statement (downloadable here <https://bit.ly/2Kfjkpl>).

The Event is by invitation only. At any time and with unappealable decision, the Organizational Committee can decide whether to accept or not the entry or to exclude an entered participant in case the latter may damage the image of the Event.

Ethical Requirement

Upon signing and submitting the entry form the entrant, along with the representative of his/her team, self-certifies the absence of sport, civil and/or criminal sanction and any pending investigation for facts concerning doping, and states that he/she has not taken – and is not taking – any prohibited substance included in the World Antidoping Agency (WADA) anti-doping list (<https://www.wada-ama.org/en/resources/science-medicine/prohibited-list>).

All mendacious statement is prosecuted in accordance with the law.
